

Greetings from the English Department, the pathway to success!

Dr. Manar Al-Momani

As Head of English Department, I am very proud to be part of an institution that can make your dreams come true. At INU, we believe in "nothing is impossible" Our challenge is to enhance the level of academic thoroughness in our university that will meet the requirements and expectations of the English Department and the citizens of neighboring countries. Our aim To provide a super higher education and learning experience outstanding students, irrespective of their backgrounds, and to produce graduates distinguished by their intellectual capabilities, employability, leadership qualities, and their ability and ambition to contribute to society.

Irbid National University is a private university that commits to offer various accredited academic programs and specializations of study leading to Associate, Bachelor, and Master degrees. Whether you are a potential student, a parent, or a member of our community, the English Department is an academic institution full of highly qualified professionals and opportunities which you can be part of.

The core teachings of the faculty are based upon exploring and bridging the gap between theory and practice related to the chosen specializations.

The English department is committed to establish and sustain local, regional, and international cooperation and collaborations with both academic institutions and organizations. Partnership collaborations play pivotal roles in enhancing students' experiences, mutual understanding, and inspire, as well as optimize the education, innovation, and technology transfer strengths of each institution.

Our Values

We aim to exemplify these values and support the University's strategic goals by:

- Respecting and recognizing students as individuals.
- Working in partnership with students and each other.
- Being realistic and honest about expectations, options, and solutions, and by taking ownership and resolving issues should they arise.
- Communicating with openness, respect and honesty.
- Providing students with information, advice and guidance that helps them make informed decisions.
